ROUGH RIDING AT LATONIA

JOCKEY KEDERIS GIVEN TEN DAYS' SUSPEN-SION FOR INTERFERENCE WITH HODGE.

Favorites Fool Their Backers and Outsiders Rule the Day-Black Beauty and Increase Crowded to a Fall.

Cincinnati, O., June 22.—Jockey E. Martin's riding of Hodge in the sprint handicap at Latonia today occasioned some adverse comment and was held responsible by some for his failure to land better than third to Little Father and Leochares. But the stewards immediately looked into the race and on investigation found that jockey J. Kederis was at fault for interference to which he subjected Martin's mount. Little Father, with a clear road, remained in the lead from the rise of the barrier and managed to win by a head from Leochares. The latter would have won but for Kederis' riding him into a pocket in the stretch drive and thereby losing much ground in having to pull up and go around Little Father. For the interference Kederis was suspended for ten days by the stewards. Surprises and form reversals developed frequently with the running of the card. The first four races went to lightly regarded contenders and their backers reaped rich returns,

The downfall of the favorites and the beginning of the surprises came in the opener when Nobleman landed the purse with Eddie Delling and Star McGee, the favored ones, failing to get any portion of the purse.

C. J. Brockmiller, represented in the sixth by landed the purse with Eddie Delling and Star Accesses, the favored ones, failing to get any portion of the purse.

C. J. Brockmiller, represented in the sixth by Important, claimed Ingot for $900.

C. F. Hornberger, which in former starts had been beaten off, upset the well-intended good things when he wen the second by a nose over Elkton, The latter was by far the best, but had a rough race and was given a poor ride. Little Father's victory followed in the feature race and Greville, another outsider, outstayed Embroidery and Uncle Bryn in the foarth, The latter indicated by his running that he dislikes to go a long distance.

and Uncle Bryn in the fourth. The latter indicated by his running that he dislikes to go a long distance.

Jockey F. Murphy was suspended for five days. by the stewards for interference in the fifth race yesterday that caused the injury to jockey Mott.

Another favorite fell by the wayside in the fifth when Star Actress brought up in third place. Her defeat was due to the roughing she received when Garner attempted to send her into the lead at the balf mile ground along the inner rail. She brought no in third place a small margin behind Miss Thorpe and Guide Post. Miss Thorpe was advanced from an entered price of $500 to $1,205 by G. C. Baker, but he falled to get her.

A bad fall came in the sixth race when Black Beauty and Increase went, down as a result of crowding that followed the scramble for positions in going to the first turn. Ott and Stearns, respective riders of Black Beauty and Increase, sustained minor injuries.

Max Garner's skillful riding has gained for him an extensive following and he is particularly the idol of the feminine portion of the race attendants. Following the close of racing here he will go with the T. C. McDowell establishment to Saratoga where he will make his debut before eastern race-goers.

Jockey A. Mott had to cancel his riding en-where he will make his debut before eastern racegoers.

Jockey A. Mott had to cancel his riding engagements for the afternoon on account of the injury he sustained in yesterday's fifth race.

Owner W. H. Baker had a narrow escape from kiling a youngster, who got in the way of his automobile, while coming to the track today. The boy was knocked down and sustained many minor injuries.

Jockey Charles Peak was among the visitors, He is enroute to Hamilton, where he will ride during the coming meeting. Peak has been resting at his home in Hot Springs since leaving Havana.

Capt. C. K. Rockwell is in a Boston hospital with a fractured shoulder blade, the result of a fall at the Brookline track.

A. Mancini and Immune, recently purchased by A. J. Schneider, have been shipped to New York in charge of W. B. Mitchell.

Bullman's riding on his two-year-olds at Denver has so impressed owner Wingfield that he has en-gaged the old-timer to ride for him through the Reno meeting.

A. J. Goldsborough, trainer for Andrew Miller and Mattie Corbett, has shipped his entire string to Aqueduct. The lot includes the fast filly Coquette, Bac, Lady Rotha and Roamer.

It is doubtful if Chupadero, Miss Chamblet's good jumper, will get to the races again this season. While being schooled at Brookline last week, a dog ran across the course between Chupadero's legs, throwing him heavily. He was badly bruised about the legs and across the back and suffered possible internal injuries.

internal injuries.

George W. Wingfield, of Reno, Nevada, arrived at Denver in his private car June 19. He was accompanied by his wife and they arrived in time to see his filly Washoe Belle win the Juvenile Stakes. This was their first view of Denver racing this year and they will remain until the Derby is run, for which he has a candidate in Star Shooter.

Word has been received from Little Rock, Ark., that the Sawyer racing bill had reached the Supreme Court, where attorneys argued and submitted the case of the Arkansas Fair Association vs. Secretary of State Hodges, to compet the secretary to proclaim the bill a law. It is thought a decision may be handed down at an early date.

A San Francisco dispa'ch of yesterday says: "Running races are to be revived in San Francisco with a thirty-day meeting at the Panama-Pacific exposition, beginning August 20, according to D. O. Lively, head of the exposition live stock department. Lively said today a jockey club, which will look after the meeting, would be organized this week."

Danny Maher, crack American jockey, whose breakdown in health forced him to take a complete rest cure in Durban, South Africa, has abandoned his intention of returning to England for the present, due to the government's intervention against racing. He has quite recovered and is certain to be seen in the saddle again when racing is resumed under normal conditions.

PAN ZARETA STARS AT CONNAUGHT PARK.

Fast Texas Weight Carrier Is Forced to Her Best to Outstay Southern Maid.

Ottawa, Ont., June 22.—Disagreeable weather conditions prevailed here this afternoon. Slight showers fell during the afternoon and kept many of the regulars away from Connaught Park. The card was chiefly made up of a series of selling races, the feature race being a handicap at three-quarters. This furnished a splendid contest and gave the Texas mare Pan Zareta an opportunity of adding another to her long list of victories. Pan Zareta carried 129 pounds and forced the pace to the stretch, where she drew away from her opponents, but she had to be hard ridden right at the end to withstand a challenge from Southern Maid. The latter finished in a resolute manner and trainer McDaniel has evidently finally rounded hor into good racing form.

Two of the seven races called for Canadian-bred hores, the first and fifth. The former furnished a surprise, the winner turning up in Pepper Sauce, which scored easily from Reddest. Irish Heart won the fifth in easy fashion.

A. R. McIntyre, who represented the Hamilton Joekey Club at the Canadian Racing Association's meeting, reported that the stables at Hamilton are fast filling up with high-class material. Albert Simons arrived at Hamilton yesterday with eight of the L. S. Thompson string and Ed W. Heffner was due this afternoon with ten of the H. C. Hallenbeck horses, included in the latter consignment is the Hamilton Deryb candidate, The Finn.

Jockey Byrne failed to file his application for a ficense, so it is problematical who will ride The Finn in his engagements in Canada.

Licenses were granted by the stewards at today's meeting to the following:

Trainers—D. A. Campbell, J. Murphy, W. Short, J. Walters, H. R. Braudt, Jule Garson and E. W. Heffner.

Jockeys—D. Connolly for G. W. J. Bissell only;

Trainers—D. A. Campont, a. Autropy, A. Sav.
J. Walters, H. R. Brandt, Jule Garson and E. W. Hefner.
Jockeys—D. Connolly for G. W. J. Bissell only;
T. Parrington, C. Hughes and J. Clancy.
Jockey Turner has been released from the contract that Dr. J. S. Tyree held on his services for the Canadian meetings and he will return to New York iomorrow to ride for Angust Belmont.
Previous to the races this afternoon the stewards of the Canadian Racing Associations held a meeting at the Chatcau Laurier. Those present included J. H. Madigin, A. E. Dyment, H. McIntyre, Colin Campbell and W. P. Fraser. Several matters were taken up for consideration, but much of the business was passed over until the next meeting, which will be held at Hamilton. The sale of the two-year-old Milestone by the Quincy Stable to A. L. Austin was ratified and the colt was restored to good standing. Jockey Ambrose's case was discussed and will be taken up again at Hamilton for final action.

Austin was ratified and the colt was restored to good standing. Jockey Ambrose's case was discussed and will be taken up again at Hamilton for final action.

Jockey I'ral was an arrival from New Vork where he has been riding for the R. T. Wilson stable. Ural will probably do the riding for James Arthur during the rest of the Canadian campaign. The sprinter A. N. Akin was again passed into new hands. He was claimed after being beaten in a race at Blue Bonnets by Francis J. Pons and he again changed hands yesterday, passing into the stable of Edward Trotter.

Jockey Metcalf has been engaged to ride George M. Hendric's Rancher in the Hamilton Derby. Metcaif's suspension will expire with the present meeting.

Owners who shipped from here to Hamilton tonight included R. B. Stelle, J. Hanlon, Edward McBride, J. Phillips and R. A. Dorn.

CELANDRIA FIRST, BUT DISQUALIFIED.

Interferes with Contenders in the Rosedale Stakes and Pays the Proper Penalty.

New York, June 22.—Weather conditions were anything but propitious today, as it was extremely cool and the skies were overeast, but this did not materially affect the attendance. The racing, which was featured by the Rosedale Stakes for two-year-old fillies, was spirited throughout the afternoon. The running of the Resedale Stakes was replete with extraordinary happenings and brought about the disqualification by the stewards of Celandria, which had finished first by a scant nose in advance of Bounic Tess after a stormy race. The fractious acting of Celandria at the post occasioned a long delay and when they finally got away Grasp raced into a comfortable lead, with Celandria in nearest pursuit. Well within the stretch Grasp bored out and Celandria and Malachite both became factors. A few yards from the finish Celandria swerved to the inside, enough to cause Malachite, which was close to the inner rail to interfere with the fast coming Pleione, knocking her completely out of contention.

Cliff Field, well ridden, won easily in the fifth. Runes won the Florida Handicap at one mile and a sixteenth by a narrow margin over Flying Fairy, which had set the pace nearly throughout. Presumption proved casily best in the second when he led Hurakan and Orotund home.

GOOD PROSPECTS OF RENO'S MEETING.

Denver, Colo., June 22.—The inaugural meeting at Reno, Nev., which opens July 17 and runs for thirty-one days, will have the largest aggregation of horses that ever were in Nevada at a race meeting. Manager W. W. Finn has the promise of all the horsemen here to go to that point, with the exception of two stables, I. E. Clark and Campbell & Gray. Both of these owners have quite a hand of two-year-olds, which they are to ship to eastern Canada and try to dispose of them to others. There will be at least 350 horses which will leave here for Reno in two specials, that will participate in the opening meeting with legilized mutuel betting under the auspices of the Reno Fair and Racing Association.

Equivalent booking odds—Irish Gentleman, 630 to 100 straight, 260 to 100 place, 140 to 100 show;
Mockery, 255 to 100 place, 115 to 100 show; Obolus, 355 to 100 show.
Winner—B, h, by McGee—The Lady (trained by J. H. Mead).
Went to post at 5:37. At post I minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. IRISH GENTLEMAN, close up from the start, wore WHITE WOOL down in the stretch and outstayed MOCKERY at the end. The latter was forced back to the far turn and had to go around on the outside, but finished fast and gamely. OBOLUS ran well and got up in the last stride for third place. LA MODE tired. WHITE WOOL quit after setting the pace to the homestretch. The winner was entered for $400; no blid. $\frac{90008201}{200082015310\text{stillusion}} \frac{932}{20998} \text{Chilla, 105; 21063 Kneelet, 98.} By Jack Atkin—Agnes Virginia (J. O. & G. H.
